

Boots, Straps and More: Bargains for a Cause
presents

Appraisal Day

Saturday, May 21st from 10:00am to 3:00pm

A unique opportunity to get your treasures appraised
$10 for one item, $20 for three items

A P P R A I S E R S

Colleene Fesko, as seen on PBS, is a Boston-based independent consultant and broker, specializing in 19th- and 20th- century American and European fine art. In addition to her work on PBS, Colleene has been a guest on NPR's Talk of the Nation as well as Chronicle and the New England News Boston.

David P. Neligan, is a licensed, bonded, and experienced auctioneer, in addition to being an experienced general appraiser with wide-ranging knowledge of antiques, fine art, and all types of personal property. Since 1992, he has had an antique shop in Essex, MA.

Susan Coviello, of Essex has been a dealer of fine textiles and jewelry since the 1980's. Along with her husband, Bob, the Coviello's, owner's of Main St. Antiques, North Hill Antiques among other shops, have been an influential presence in the antique world of Essex, MA for more than 25 years.

198 Rantoul Street, Beverly www.beverlybootstraps.org or 978-921-4710

