

Tuesday, July 29, 2008 THE SALEM NEWS

Beverly Bootstraps' Summer is for Reading program, which provides free books for Beverly children, recently received a donation of 480 books from students in readiness through grade five at Shore Country Day School, Beverly. Shore students donated the cost of at least one book from the Scholastic Book Club and collected gently used books for the program.